

Call for Proposals

Annual Meeting of Asian Political Methodology Conference

18-19 March 2026

The Jindal School of Government and Public Policy (JSGP) at O.P. Jindal Global University (JGU) is pleased to host the 13th Annual Meeting of the Asian Political Methodology Conference (Asian Polmeth XIII).

This will be an in-person conference, with proceedings held at the JGU International Academy at Taj Mahal Hotel in New Delhi, India.

New Delhi is the capital city of India. The Taj Mahal Hotel is an iconic hotel at the heart of the city that is at a convenient distance from all its major landmarks.

Call for Papers

We welcome individual paper and poster proposals from any area of political science that develop new methods as well as those that apply them. Proposals may focus mainly on substantive contributions to knowledge in any subfield of political science, including political economy and public policy, while demonstrating innovation in the development and application of quantitative methods to political science research.

Deadline for proposal submission is September 30, 2025. Please submit paper and poster proposals online (<https://jgu.edu.in/asian-polmeth/>). The primary presenter should submit the proposal that includes the title, the abstract (up to 300 words), the names of authors, and the contact information of the primary presenter. Poster presenters do not have to write up papers by the conference. No registration fee will be charged.
